BY WATTIE HAWTHORNE.

Little baby faces
Pressed against the pane,
Reaching after sunbeams
All their grasping vain.

Ah! these baby faces, Our pathways how they cheer, Change our clouds to sunshine, Make our lives so dear.

Darling baby faces So innocent and fair, God protect, and keep you Safe from every snare.

Bright and youthful faces, Somewhat older grown, Peeping through the lattice At the stranger gone. Are these youthful faces, Joyous as of yore? Do not some waves of sorrow Beat upon their shore? Ah! these fair young faces, Are pressing, pressing on Leaving halcyon bowers, Leaving fairest dawn.

Tired and weary faces, Peering into night, earching in the darkness,

For some ray of light. See you not some beacon, On the other shore? Some bright tint of sunlight, When life's day is o'er?

Ah! these changing faces, Treading life's pathway, May they rest in heaven After life's sad day.

"I'm goin' to quit this airthly scene.
It ain't no place for me to stay
In such a world as 'tis to-day,
Such works and ways is too much for me.
Nobody can't let nobody be;
The girls are flounced from top to toe,
And that's the hull o' what they know;
The men is mad on becade an' stocks. The men is mad on bonds an' stocks, Swearin' an' shootin' an' pickin' locks. Swarin an should an pleasin Reas-l'm real 'fraid I'll be hanged myself, Ef I ain't laid on my final shelf. There ain't a creetur but knows to-day I never was a lunatic anyway. But since the crazy folks all go free
I'm dreadful afraid they'll hang up me.
There's another matter that's peaky hard—
I can't go into a neighbor's yard
To say 'How de do?' or borrow a pin,
But what the recently have in But what the paper'll have in—
'We're pleased to say the Widder Green

Presently, nowever, he conduct the trop was through to the said. The crew supposed he wished to join them, and made various attempts to induce him to come aboard, but no! he would not go within their reach, but continued swimming about a short distance from them. After a while, and several comments on the genuliar conduct of the dog, one of the lads suddenly divined his sparent meaning: 'Give him the end of a rope,' he said; that's what he wants.' The rope was thrown—the dog seized the end in an instant, turned round, and end in the said; the said; that 's what he wants.' Washington, Oct. 17—At a Cabinet the fact that Gov. Tilden did carry the step of the Government was represented. There was a full and earnest discussion of the condition of affairs in South Carolina, as represented to the Government by the Chief Executive of that State. The views of the Cabinet, acting upon information officially given will be cast this year. Now the Demonstrate of the said; 'that's what he wants.' The rope was thrown—the dog seized the end in an instant, turned round, and made straight for the shore; where a few minutes afterwards boat and crew—thanks to the intelligence of their four-footed friend!—were placed safe and undamaged. Was there no reasoning here? No acting with a view to an end, or for a given motive? Or ing upon information officially given will be cast this year. Now the Dem-

to the General Government, are that prompt action was necessary for the purpose of dispersing rific clubs and other armed bodies organized, as alleged, against the peace of the State and rights of voters, and to this end the Attorney General began the immediate preparation of the following proclamation, which was issued to-night:

By the President of the United will be cast this year. Now the Democrat have never polled as large an honest vote, in the whole history of the State, as they did in electing Mr. Tilden in 1874, for they were then reinforced by many thousand Liberals and Independents. That he will not get the votes of a great proportion of these is known to him, and to every other intelligent Democrat. A few hundred support him still, and will do their their untiring stamping mill. I are By the President of the United States of America—a proclamation:

gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimu-lated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the forma-tion of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambrie, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

For the relief and cure of all derangements in the atronach, liver, and bowels. They are a mild aperient, and an excellent purgative. Being purely vegetable, they contain no mercury or mineral whatever. Much serious sickness and suffering is prevented by their timely use; and every family should have them on hand for their protection and relief, when required. Long experience has proved them to be the safest, surest, and best of all the Fills with which the market abounds. By their occasional tise, the blood is purified, the corruptions of the system expelled, obstructions removed, and the whole machinery of life restored to its healthy activity. Internal organs which become clogged and sluggish are cleansed by Ager's Fills, and stimulated into action. Thus incipient disease is changed into health, the value of which change, when reckoned on the vast multitudes who enjoy it, can hardly be computed. Their sugar coating makes them pleasant to take, and preserves their virtues unimpaired for any length of time, so that they are ever fresh, and perfectly reliable. Although searching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution, or diet, or occupation.
